

In the SPOTLight

Cancer Science Institute of Singapore

www.csi.nus.edu.sg

Issue 1 | January 2014

Dr Edward Chow and team highlight clinical translation of novel drug delivery and imaging agents

Dr Chow's featured review on Science Translational Medicine provides among the most comprehensive assessments to date on promising cancer nanomedicine platforms.

26 December 2013

Secreted frizzled related proteins: Implications in cancers

In BBA - Reviews on Cancer, Rohit Surana gives an overview on understanding ways to perturb Wnt signaling in cancers and cancer stem cells.

17 December 2013

Massachusetts Governor visits CSI

CSI showcased its translational research facilities to Mr Deval Patrick, Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and his team of US delegates.

17 December 2013

Research findings pave way for acute myeloid leukaemia treatment

The identification of a therapeutic target and anti-cancer drugs by a group of international scientists led by Prof Daniel Tenen, Director of CSI Singapore, may bring reprieve for acute myeloid leukaemia patients.

6 December 2013

More News

Save The Date

Author donates book donates proceeds to CSI

14 year old Rachele Toh pledges to donate proceeds from her fantasy novel to advance cancer research.
28 November 2013

2014 Highlights of ASH in Asia

Listen to hematology experts discuss top clinical and translational research at the Highlights of ASH 2014, March 29-30. Registration is now open!